

They who would give up an essential liberty for temporary security, deserve neither liberty or security.

~Benjamin Franklin

It is by the goodness of God that in our country we have these three unspeakably precious things: Freedom of speech, freedom of conscience, and the prudence to practice neither.

~Mark Twain

A democracy is nothing more than mob rule, where fifty-one percent of the people may take away the rights of the other forty-nine.

~Thomas Jefferson

Democracy is the most vile form of government... democracies have ever been spectacles of turbulence and contention: have ever been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property: and have in general been as short in their lives as they have been violent in their deaths.

~James Madison

I am afraid that the schools will prove the very gates of hell, unless they diligently labor in explaining the Holy Scriptures and engraving them in the heart of the youth.

~Martin Luther

There is no worse way to block out the spirit than confidence in our own intelligence.

~John Calvin

We must remember that Satan has his miracles, too.

~John Calvin

All tyranny needs to gain a foothold is for people of good conscience to remain silent.

~Thomas Jefferson

Do you want to know who you are? Don't ask. Act! Action will delineate and define you.

~Thomas Jefferson

Knowledge will forever govern ignorance; and a people who mean to be their own governors must arm themselves with the power which knowledge gives.

~James Madison

Government is not reason. It is not eloquent; it is force. Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master.

~George Washington

All who call on God in true faith, earnestly from the heart, will certainly be heard, and will receive what they have asked and desired.

~Martin Luther

Blood alone moves the wheels of history.

~Martin Luther

God writes the gospel in not the bible alone, but also on trees, and in the flowers and clouds and stars.

~Martin Luther

If men were angles, no government would be necessary.

~James Madison

God knows I'm not the thing I should be, nor am I the thing I could be, but twenty times I would rather be an atheist clean, than under gospel colors, just for a screen.

~Robert Burns
